

DeWayne Street Consulting

Leading Professionals to Success with Diversity

Business Flyer

DeWayne Street, global diversity leader in business and education, provides an authentic voice to answering your diversity questions in the workplace and school.

July 2011

Modules Offered

- (1) Clouded Practice: The African-American Child in our Schools
- (2) Just Another Student: The Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Student in our Schools
- (3) Segregated Victory: African-Americans in World War II
- (4) The Bi-racial Child in our Schools
- (5) The Power of Perception: Is it Real or is it Me?
- (6) Using Teams to Implement Response to Intervention (RTI)
- (7) Poverty & Student Achievement

Customer Services

Administrator Academies: 6.5 hours in-person, or in a blended in-person, online format. Choose a module topic and participate in a practical workshop for administrators (approved by the Illinois State Board of Education). The format is a combination of multimedia presentations, as well as, hands on team learning. The focus is on closing the achievement gap.

Workshops for Administrators: Never before in American history has there been such a sweeping change in demographics. Administrative teams will be given the strategies they need to model behaviors that promote excellence, community and respect for diversity.

Workshops for Staff: With today's changing population, cultural differences impact the learning environment. Teaching staff will learn how to reach out to all students, irrespective of race, gender and economics, thereby increasing student achievement.

Higher Education: Invest in your residential assistants (RA's) by transforming them into true agents of change. Enhance leadership skills with on-site workshops that meet the needs of the changing college environment.

DeWayne Street, owner of DeWayne Street Consulting, is one of the most powerful academic voices in the area of educational and workplace diversity. Street is most recognized as the diversity training specialist who helps people see the individual. His innovative strategies move organizations away from stereotyping and biased practices and toward stronger organizations, whose members value the contributions of all. Street bases his practice on historical facts, unveiling patterns of bias and discrimination in an effort to assist people to create their own meaning in their journey toward appreciating others.

Street was born on November 2, 1967, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. He graduated in 1991 with a B.S. in Education (History and Political Science) from Alabama State University. Street earned an M.S. in Adult Continuing Education from Northern Illinois University (2002) with a focus in human resource development. Currently a Doctoral Candidate in Adult Continuing Education from Northern Illinois University, Street has studied abroad and presented research in China, Taiwan, Korea and Brazil.

DeWayne Street started his career path as a professional educator for the School District of Beloit, teaching at both the high school and middle school levels. Over his tenure, Street designed and implemented an African American Studies program for Beloit Memorial High School. He is currently employed by the State of Wisconsin as the Director of the Office of Diversity & Employee Services, Department of Corrections, Madison, WI. DeWayne Street Consulting (DSC) began in 2000. DSC provides external diversity consulting to many K-12 school districts.

Street is recognized as an outstanding educator in Who's Who: 2005, 2002, 2000, 1998, and 1996. He became an Illinois State Board of Education Approved Professional Development Provider in 2005. Street is a Wall of Tolerance Award Winner for 2006 and 2005. Street was the 2005 Presenter on History, Cultural & Health Disparity for the American Dietetic Association's 10/25/2005 Food & Nutrition Conference & Expo in St. Louis, Missouri.

Phone: (815) 742-2979

Fax: (815) 624-0468

Email: dewayne@dewaynestreetconsulting.com

Visit us at www.dewaynestreetconsulting.com